

E-Bills

As technology has improved more of our customers are taking advantage of the e-billing system now available through Kit Carson Electric Cooperative. Your electric cooperative spends approximately $150,000 per year on postage to get electrical bills out to its members. This is a substantial amount of money not considering the envelopes and return envelopes that are enclosed with the bill.

- E-billing reduces the amount of paper and stress on the environment
- E-billing helps reduce the cost of personnel time to prepare the bills
- E-Billing help reduce the cost of operating the production machines
- E-bill is delivered your email address of your choice.
- Your bill is never lost in the mail or late
- You receive your bill even if you are not at home.
- Avoid unnecessary trips to the post office
- Receipt of the bill is immediate so you can attached to the link and pay your bill online and you do not have to write checks, buy a stamp, etc.
